

CHAPTER 20 - EMBLEM, INSIGNIA, SEAL

20.1 Insignia

The official insignia of the Corporation:

The colours of the official insignia shall be in red, white and black except for print where it may be reproduced in black and white only if necessary.

20.2 Right to Use Insignia

1. Limit

The use of the official insignia shall be limited to the members of the Corporation or others duly authorized by the National Board.

2. Adaptation

The National President shall ensure that all insignias shall be registered with the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs as the registered Trade Mark of the Corporation. Use of the Trade Mark for any purpose, shall be registered with the National President. Adaptations of the insignia shall be authorized by the National President.

3. Forfeit

The right to use the official insignia and its adaptations and the said phrase shall be automatically and forthwith forfeited on termination of any member's or group's affiliation duly authorized.

20.3 Seal

The official seal of the Corporation:

The seal of the Corporation shall remain in the custody of the National President and shall be affixed by the National President to all documents where the execution whereof by the Corporation is duly required or authorized.

20.4 Signing Officers

The President shall be the signing officer on all official documents of the Corporation.